think that is? JONATHAN CAPEHART, WASHINGTON POST: I'm -- OK, buckle up. This is inroads, this notion that Trump has made inroads is a result of a New York Times/Siena poll that came out in February where, shockingly, it said that Trump was getting 23 percent of Black support. Now, when this -- when I was confronted with this, I was like, do you even know the sample size, sample size? Because I don't believe that. And you ask any Black pollster, and they're like, it's not there. The sample size on that poll was 119 respondents for a national poll. NAWAZ: You think it's a false narrative? CAPEHART: I think it's a false narrative. We go through this every four years. Will Black voters show up? Oh, the support is softening. Oh, my God, it feels like, to lots of us, that these narratives are perpetuated so that if the
